

PICTURE COVERS – REAL CAVES

SLOVAKIA

Demänovská jaskyňa Slobody (Demänovská Cave of Liberty)

Liptovský Mikuláš, Low Tatras Mountains, Slovak Republic

PC-RE53 Czechoslovakia 1973

EP: SLOVENSKÉ JASKYNE

Nar: Imrich Jenča (Spoken Word)

Label: Opus 91 38 0096 (Gatefold cover)

Photo: (Color)

Notes: A nicely lit color photo in this renowned Slovak show cave showing calcite draperies and stalactites on the walls around a cave pool, probably a rimstone pool. This scene in the cave has been identified with an old postcard, which shows this to be Čarovné jazierko (Charming Little Lake). A small stalagmite is in silhouette in the foreground. This photo very likely has been printed backwards.

This souvenir disc included 12 color slides within the gatefold cover. For more information about this recording see under Spoken Word Recordings – Documentary – Slovakia.

EP: SLOVENSKÉ JASKYNE (Second Edition)

Nar: Imrich Jenča (Spoken Word)

Label: Pressfoto (?) (Gatefold cover)

Photo: (Color)

Notes: A re-edition of the above disc. Another scene in this famous Slovak show cave. Here the bank of the cave river with massive calcite draperies and stalactites hanging down over flowstone cascades. This formation is called Stromom života (The Tree of Life).

This souvenir disc included 12 color slides within the gatefold cover. For more information about this recording see under Spoken Word Recordings – Documentary – Slovakia.
