

PICTURE COVERS – REAL CAVES

ARGENTINA

---

Cueva de las Manos

Rio Pinturas, Santa Cruz, Patagonia

PC-RE-AR1 Argentina 1980

LP: DESDE LA PATAGONIA AUSTRAL

Perf: Hugo Gimenez Agüero (World)

Label: Sonoro 128010 (Gatefold cover)

Photo: (Color)

Notes: The photo shows the famous cave wall of negative handprints. This is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The main cave measures 15 meters wide at the entrance, 24 meters deep, and from 10 to 2 meters high.

“The art in the cave dates from 13,000 to 9,000 years ago. Several waves of people occupied the cave, and early artwork has been carbon-dated to ca. 9300 BP (about 7300 BC).” (Anon. 2014)

PC-RE-AR1 France 1992

LP: RUNNING OUT OF TIME

Perf: Digital Orgasm

(Electronica)

Label: Dance Pool 657979 6

Photo: (Color)

Notes: This is an unusual French Maxi 33rpm LP with four mixes of “Running out of Time.”

The cover photo shows a detail of the famous cave wall of negative handprints. However, the LP photo has been turned a quarter clockwise.
